CONFERENCE BYLAWS
1994

Ministers' Records

1. All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the Conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes. These churches are listed by Districts.

4. Each church shall mail monthly reports to the Conference Office within ten days after the close of each month. In addition, each church shall mail semi-annual reports to the Conference Office by the tenth of July and the tenth of January; and shall mail an annual report to the Conference Office by January 10th. These reports shall be on forms made available from the Conference Office.

Pastoral Changes

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference. This vote shall be taken on the last Sunday of April or the first Sunday of May preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the Conference Superintendent within twenty-four hours.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the MANUAL of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

3. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Conference Board for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church board makes a request to the Conference Board contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the Conference Board. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall have been a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church prior to their applications for license.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine, reputation, and credit rating.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses of studies approved by the Conference Board. These courses may be offered by any approved college or be a course of study approved by the General Conference.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the official board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. The local church shall not elect more than one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers offices.

4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions Committee.

Finances--Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the Conference Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the general program of the Denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The Conference Superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for Conference Superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing Superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The Conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the Conference Office by the tenth of the following month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job, it becomes mandatory that:

a. In keeping with the General Conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the Conference Board will consider housing and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

c. The church shall review the pastor's salary at least annually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of the pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the Annual Conference Session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of Conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of pastoral change, the church, which the pastor is leaving, will pay his salary and benefits through the week of the Annual Conference.

e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

f. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The Conference Treasurer shall pay the premiums for the Superintendent. The Christian Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Christian Education Director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the Evangelism Director. These stated Departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

h. In keeping with the General Conference Minutes, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the Superintendent and other personnel employed by the Conference.

8. Evangelists' Compensation:

a. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the minimum salaries of pastors per week plus travel.

b. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensating evangelists.

c. If a church cancels a revival for a full-time evangelist, without giving at least thirty days' notice, that church shall pay the evangelist.

9. The rate of thirty-two and 1/2 cents ($.325) per mile shall be paid for all official travel. This is subject to adjustment according to the rate adopted by GBA, GEB, or General Conference.

10. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses of retired ministers.

11. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

Vacations

1. The Conference Superintendent shall be given three weeks vacation with pay each year. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

2. Pastors should receive vacation with pay according to the following schedule which is based upon his total years in the pastorate, not just the years at his current pastorate:

One to ten years .....two weeks
Eleven years and up.....three weeks

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct not more than three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his Department.

Local Church--Ministerial Relations

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor.

2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not frequently visit to the extent that it causes confusion and creates a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor.

Use of Conference Facilities

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

Death of A Minister

In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the Office of the Conference Superintendent shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The Conference Board Members will be notified by the Conference Office.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the Nominating Committee for all Conference sessions.

2. The Conference Board will set the date for the Christian Worker's Institute and select the speakers for the Institute and the Falcon Camp Meeting.

3. The Conference Board and auxiliary Department leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

Revision of By-Laws

The Conference Board shall serve as the Standing Committee on Revision of By-Laws. All revisions shall be recommended to the Conference in Session by the Revision Committee. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required to revise the By-Laws.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
INTERNATIONAL PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH
EIGHTY SEVENTH ANNUAL SESSION
INSPIRATIONAL SESSION
JULY 25, 1996

The Conference was called to order by the Conference Superintendent, Rev. T. Elwood Long, at 9:30 AM. Minister of Music Danny Meads led the Conference in inspirational choruses. Prayer was led by Superintendent Long. The Superintendent presented the Presiding Officer, Bishop B.E. Underwood, General Superintendent of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Bishop Underwood conducted a training session on "Women in Ministry". He read from Galatians 3:28 addressing "Ten Commandments Against Women".

A recess of 15 minutes was declared to allow delegates to purchase books on women in ministry.

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

I praise the Lord Jesus Christ for His calling and anointing on my life for ministry. It is my Greatest joy to serve Him!

I am grateful to my wife, Sylvia, and my family for their faithful support. The pastors, evangelists, missionaries, superannuated ministers and congregations of the Conference have blessed me so much in our labors together.

The Conference Board and other ministry Boards of this Conference are committed to this ministry.

Pastors, you opened your pulpits to me to speak on 184 occasions during 1997. I visited 1396 times with individuals and groups. I have chaired meetings of the Conference Board, Christian Education, Evangelism, Missions and Falcon Children's Home Boards. I have participated in meetings with the Zone Superintendents, General Board of Administration, General World Missions Board, and Emmanuel College Board of Education. I led the activities of the Falcon and Piney Grove Campmeetings, Christian Worker's Institute and 20 District Conference Rallies.

Mrs. Linda Thomas, Conference President and the Conference Women's Ministries Board, the twelve District Directors and each local church Women's Ministries leadership team is being used of God in unprecedented ways of ministry. The impact and effect of this valuable team encircles the globe in a caring and sharing influence.

GEMS is led by Mrs. Sandra McCandless and a dedicated army of girls and women who believe with all their hearts that Girls must be involved in Entering the Master's Service. They are proving that!

Our Assistant Conference Superintendent, Brother D. Chris Thompson, is the Director of Evangelism and World Missions for this Conference. The results of his commitment to Global Harvest is reflected in the revitalization of a number of churches who are served by pastors he has influenced in seminars, personal contacts and other forums of instruction. He leads a team of twelve district directors, and 36 other district unit leaders and a World Missions Committee of nine Holy-Spirit anointed men and women. The rapid growth of our Latin contingency is greatly a result of Brother Thompson's efforts. Retired missionary, John Parker, is a God-send as he serves in the capacity of Hispanic co-ordinator for this Conference.

I praise God for the large number of evangelists and missionaries who are members of this Conference. Your support of these diligent servants is deeply appreciated. They will "go" but we must "send".

Brother Roland Harrell, Secretary/Treasurer, serves as Stewardship Officer. I thank the Lord for giving us this diligent, "detailed" servant for this important arena of service. We are grateful to the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund Committee who serve as advisors to the Conference Board in this financial capacity. Brother Harrell chairs that committee.

Brother Bobby Forehand has continued to serve diligently and effectively as Conference Christian Education Director.

The faithful commitment of a host of supporters throughout this network of local church youth and Christian Education leaders gives this director and Christian Education Ministries Board encouragement. Youth and Teen Talent, Bible Quiz, Royal Rangers and Falcon Youth Camp continue to be a viable stream of recruiting and training young people and children in the Gospel Ministry.

Brother Forehand also serves as Royal Rangers National Commander. He and Conference Commander, Colonel Bill Linn, U.S.Army (retired), have a profound influence on a multitude of men and boys in the service of our Lord.

Men's Ministries, led by Brother Jack Kelly, is a growing group of men dedicated to the cause of Christ. I believe, with the total cooperation of our pastors, that this ministry can continue to develop into one of the strongest bases of support for the work of pastors in the local church. We must release them into ministry more than ever!

WIN, "World Intercession Network", continues to be a great force for ministry. Conference Board Member, Pastor Danny Nelson, is our dedicated Director. He and a team of local church WIN directors from across this Conference are constantly mobilizing and encouraging our people to be committed to the ministry of intercessory prayer. This ministry is one of the most powerful strategies we have been given by our Lord.

Mrs. Sylvia Long, my wife, continues to lead the Minister's Wives Fellowship. This effort is a valuable opportunity available to all minister's wives. In this day of a vast array of forces that assail the home and ministry every pastor's and evangelist's wife needs this involvement.

The Conference Resource Development Center staff are valuable personnel. Dolores Reynolds, Lisa Clifton, Kay Glover, Rose Nelson, Westa Barefoot, Tommy Vaughan and Bobby and Ruby West are the dear people who keep the everyday work of the office going. This is a dedicated team of true servants.

We are in this elite work together to the Glory of God!

PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

COMMITTEE ON APPRECIATION REPORT

Eighty-Seventh Annual Session of the
North Carolina Conference

July 25, 1997

"How are they to believe in One of whom they have not heard? And how are they ever to hear, without a herald? And how can men be heralds unless they are sent?" Saint Paul to the Romans, Romans 10:14.

Today we honor six of God's choicest servants - two women and four men. These six heard The Story, accepted Him, and became proclaimers of the Greatest Story ever told. They are preachers. They preached, not for the propagating of their own views, opinions, and ideas, but for the proclamation of the mighty acts of God. This is demonstrably the New Testament conception of the preacher's task.

We honor them, their God, and their task.

VIRGINIA W. BRIDGMAN

Reverend Mrs. Virginia Waters Bridgman was born to the home of Earl and Bertha Waters, Beaufort County, North Carolina. She was married to Allen Bridgman on May 22, 1948. They were blessed with three children - Kirby, Colin, and Rev. Mrs. Lorita Sanders.

Sister Bridgman came to know the Lord in 1951 at a mission near Swanquarter, N.C. The preacher was the Rev. T. Macon Spencer. She joined the Swanquarter Pentecostal Holiness Church even before they had their first building. Her years have been filled with Christian service.

She earned her Mission Worker's License at the Williamston Conference in September, 1979. Later she became a member of the North Carolina Conference and was granted her Local License to preach in June, 1981. Her preaching years have been filled with evangelizing and pastoring. She has pastored two churches and both of them twice. For a total of nine years she pastored at Swanquarter and four years at Pinetown.

Her favorite saying is "When God calls, He makes a way." The saying has proven true in her life. Her husband died in 1982, but she continued on - together with the Lord. Her favorite verse is Proverbs 29:18 - "Where there is no vision, the people perish; but he that keepeth the law, happy is he."

Sister Bridgman, You ARE a woman of vision. We salute and honor you today.

L. B. COLLINS

Reverend Lindbergh Collins, known by most of his peers as L. B., was born June 4, 1927. His parents were Will and Mary Collins. He was born in Harnett County. He was born again at the Full Gospel Tabernacle Church, Fuquay Varina in 1943. His second greatest decision of life was made December 11, 1944 when he married Elizabeth Moore Collins, known to us as "Lib". They were blessed by two children, Glenda and Deborah.

Rev. Collins favorite verse of Scripture is Proverbs 3:6 - "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He will direct they paths." The verse has proven reality in his life. He was ordained to preach by the Full Gospel Tabernacle in 1949. He transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1964. While with the Full Gospel Tabernacle he pastored churches in Tabor City, Fayetteville, and Saint Pauls. With the Pentecostal Holiness Church, he pastored Stedman, Evangel, Benson, and planted/pastored Grace Community Church in Fayetteville. In addition to his pastoral duties he has and continues to be much in demand for revivals.

In addition to his pastoral duties, Brother Collins worked several years with Pope Department Stores and with Sears for eleven years, where he served as a department head.

He has served on many committees and boards of his denomination. He served on the General Church Evangelism Board for eight years and the N. C. Conference Board for eight years. He served this Conference well for fourteen years as Conference Evangelism Director. Eight of those years were full-time. Many new churches and numerous souls were won during his tenure.

Rev. L. B. Collins has always been a man to better himself. He prepares well for his preaching assignments. He was enrolled at South Western for a year and has taken numerous courses at Johnston Tech and Emmanuel College through the TEE Program.

Brother Collins is a people person. He loves the Lord and shares the Lord's love for others. We love him and salute him today. As he likes to say - "May the rain always fall in his fields and the wind be at his back. Through his life and preaching may many souls come home."

We honor and salute you, my brother!

WILLIAM C. DUNNING

Brother William C. Dunning, "Bill" Dunning, was born October

6, 1931 to Edgar and Annie Dunning. He is a native of North Hampton County. He and his wife, Ina, have enjoyed life together since February 25, 1950. They have three Children - Ellen, Talmadge, and Diane.

Bill Dunning came to the Lord in 1954. He was saved at the Windsor Pentecostal Holiness Church. Hearing the call to preach, he received his Mission Worker's License at the Roper Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1960. The North Carolina Conference issued his Local License in 1963 and Ordained him to the gospel ministry at Falcon in 1969.

Since joining the Conference Reverend Dunning has been a very active pastor. He pastored the Spring Green Mission, the Hamilton Church, Plymouth, Hamilton a second time, Windsor, Belhaven, Plymouth a second time, and Weldon. He is known as a pastor with a pastor's heart. His gentle but dedicated spirit has always been well received and appreciated.

Brother Dunning has always focused on the Lord for his life and ministry. He loves Psalms 23 and the Lord is his Shepherd. "Greater is He that is within him than he that is within the world." His life has always proven the Romans 8:28 experience. "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

Pastor Dunning we salute you and pray that you will continue to receive His anointing as you preach.

EDSEL G. HOOKS

Reverend Edsel G. Hooks was born to Roy and Myde Hooks on August 9, 1930. He came to know the Lord in 1947 at the Pike's Cross Roads Church. He married Edna on July 18, 1953. Together they have labored faithfully to serve the Lord.

His ministry and life have always exemplified his motto - "Just to know that you've helped someone." His focus in the Lord has been - "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me." - Phillipians 4:13. That verse has been his Favorite verse and guiding verse through the years.

Brother Hooks received his Mission Worker's License in 1955. He was Licensed to preach and joined the North Carolina Conference in 1960. He has faithfully pastored the following churches - Fremont, Manley Grove, Stantonsburg, Friendship, Micro, and Jones Grove. He has been a supply pastor in several places through the years.

He has been Superannuated but continues in the active ministry. Every Sunday morning he preaches and ministers at the Brent Haven Nursing Home in Goldsboro. From nine to eleven he can be found pushing wheel chairs, preaching praying, and giving an encouraging word. He is in church pulpits at every available opportunity.

In addition to his pulpit ministry he has had a chair ministry for forty-one years. Since graduating from Barber School in 1956 he has ministered the Word while cutting hair. He has had an attentive audience as he has used clippers and a straight razor to prove his points.

Brother Hooks we salute and honor you today for your faithfulness to the cause of Christ and the gospel ministry.

MARGARET E. HORRELL

Reverend Mrs. Margaret English Horrell was born in Pender County to the home of J. J. and Leona English. As a young girl she was taught by her mother the value of character in one's life. She is known as a woman of sterling character and Christlike spirit. Her favorite verse of scripture is Proverbs 22:1 - "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver or gold." She was converted in 1942 at the Peniel Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church. Accepting the call to preach she began preaching in the spring of 1948. Later she would receive a Missions Worker's License (1953) and be Licensed to preach in the North Carolina Conference in 1954. She is known as an outstanding preacher. On September 17,1949 her ministry changed. She was married to the Reverend Benjamin C. Horrell. She stood and served with him as he pastored the following churches - Verona, Harkers Island, Saint Paul, Mount Carmel, Wilson First, and their present and longest pastorate, Roanoke Rapids First. The Horrell's have seven children - Randall, Rebecca, Sheila, the Rev. John Mark, Holly, Jennifer, and Justin.

Sister Horrell is such a lovely Christian. She is always bubbling with Christian joy. We salute you today as you continue to minister for Him.

GUY WILLIAM PROSPER

Brother Guy Prosper was born April 29, 1932. He was born again in 1965 at the First Assembly of God in Wilmington, N. C. His parents were Peter and Mary Prosper of Walston, Pennsylvania. He first came to North Carolina as a Marine. He and his wife Margaret were married on June 1, 1952. They have two children, Guy, Jr. and Sherri Lynne. His schooling included two years at Penn State University.

Reverend Prosper earned his Mission Worker's License in 1970. He became a member of the Conference and was granted his Local Minister's License in 1971. He was ordained in 1973.

Brother Prosper has labored in twenty years of pastoral ministry. He was on loan to the Myrtle Grove Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church for three years. He then pastored Garland, Tyndall Grove, Liberty, and the Graham Memorial churches.

He has always had a burden for the souls. His favorite verse of scripture is Matthew 16:26 - "For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"

Brother Prosper, we commend you for your faithful labors and for your diligence to serve the Lord. May you continue to minister in His name and continue to love and lead lost souls into the kingdom.

We honor these today. We salute them. Because they have lived and preached among us, the kingdom has expanded. We are blessed and changed because we have known them.

We honor all of you and each of you as valuable members of the North Carolina Conference. We rejoice that you continue to labor among us. Your official designation has changed but remember the call of God is without repentance. Continue to preach HIS WORD.

Respectfully submitted,

D. Chris Thompson

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT
1997

Revelation 1:13-16 "In the midst of the seven lampstands one like the Son of man...and he had in his right hand seven stars". v-20 "the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand....the seven stars are the ministers of the seven churches."

Most ministers do not receive the honor they deserve for the life they pour into Christian service. The faithful Pastors of the church of Asia Minor of Revelation Chapter 1 are to this day unnamed, unrecognized messengers who spent their lives preaching and comforting and serving. The world has never taken note of them. But Jesus acknowledges their value and preciousness by taking them in his right hand. Peterson in "THE MESSAGE" rendering of Revelation 2:1 says "The one with Seven Stars in his right-fist grip". The picture is powerful in it's significance. Those servants over looked by everyone else are cradled by their Lord for protection, but especially for recognition and honor in the "fist-grip" of His hand.

It is appropriate that we join Jesus our Lord in giving honor to whom honor is due. While we are not to seek prominence or acclaim still our Lord approves of our giving a servant of God just distinction.

Remember with me those ministers who shared the work with us and who now rejoice with the angels in the presence of our Lord's glory:

JANUARY 4, 1912 - AUGUST 26, 1996

Rev. Ralph Johnson graduated from Holmes Bible College in 1932 and became a Licensed Minister the same year. Two years later he was Ordained. Rev. Johnson's first Pastoral assignments were of necessity churches he could commute to due to the fact that he and his wife Annie Miller lived in Goldsboro where they cared for her mother and her invalid father. Those early Pastorates included: Pink Hill, Calypso, Manley Grove, St. John, Clayton, Bizzell's Grove, Pike's Cross Road, Rocky Mount (Living Faith), Shiloh, Benson and Falcon (Culbreth Memorial).

Rev. Johnson was resident Pastor at Greenville First, Wilmington First, Whiteville, Clinton, Belfast and Westmoreland. He served as Treasurer of the Conference for 36 years until at age 70 he retired in 1982.

Rev. Johnson's first wife, Annie Miller died after several years of declining health in 1975.

Ralph Johnson was in every sense of the word a working Pastor. He was always engaged in building and did much of the work himself, including carpentry, electrical and masonry work. He was a powerful, articulate preacher with firm convictions which he lived by and never wavered in. He was open with his opinions, certain in his theological stance and secure in his saving faith.

The North Carolina Conference is forever indebted to this man of pioneer spirit and a servant's heart.

He is survived by his dear wife of 21 years Gladys, his son David and Daughter Carolyn. Ralph also had many sons and daughters in the faith. People he led to the Lord during his ministry. We salute the memory of a great soldier of the cross, RALPH R. JOHNSON.

REVEREND WALTER KELLY WHITE
FEBRUARY 19, 1902 - OCTOBER 7, 1996

When Kelly White went to be with his Lord on October 7, 1996 he was the oldest credentialed minister in the North Carolina Conference. He accepted Jesus Christ in October of 1932. He received Mission Worker's License in January of 1941, Local Minister's License in September of 1945 and was Ordained on August 30, 1947. An energetic preacher and caring Pastor Rev. White served at Weldon three different times, Gum Chapel (Harvest Temple), Wakelon, Merritt's Chapel, Thomas Chapel, Spring Hope, Darlington (Trinity), Taylor's Chapel, Lamm's Grove and Rock Grove. He served Abbottsburg after his formal retirement.

Rev. White is survived by his loving and faithful wife, Annie. By his daughters Thelma and Eunice and son I. D. White. He had 23 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren, and 8 great-great grandchildren.

It is said of Kelly White, "he was a good man". Jesus said of him, "Well done my GOOD and faithful servant."

REVEREND IRENE GASKINS ELLENBURG
AUGUST 9, 1917 - OCTOBER 15, 1996

Irene Ellenburg was a native of Pitt County NC. She was converted in 1931 at Shelmerdine, NC. Rev. Ellenburg graduated from Holmes Bible and Missionary Institute, now Holmes College of the Bible, in 1938 and also attended Emmanuel College and Erskine College.

Rev. Mrs. Ellenburg received Mission Worker's License in the Western NC Conference and Local Minister's License in 1958 in the Eastern Virginia Conference. She conducted revival meetings along the east coast before pastoring in Arlington, Virginia from 1957 through 1962. She spent 20 years of ministry as an Evangelist.

She married the Rev. James Tyler Ellenburg in 1961 in Arlington and assisted him in pastorates in Irmo, SC, Langley, SC, and Sharon, PA. He became Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Conference in 1972. After his death in 1983 she moved to Kinston the next year joining the Kinston First Church. She transferred her conference membership from Pennsylvania to the North Carolina Conference in 1990. She continued to preach until her health declined in recent years.

Rev. Mrs. Ellenburg is survived by a brother, H. B. Gaskins, two sisters, Carol and Linda, two sons, James and Ronald, and a daughter Kellie.

Her years of ministry in the Pentecostal Holiness Church exceeded a half century.

REVEREND GEORGE ASA CASPER
FEBRUARY 10, 1915 - FEBRUARY 19, 1997

George Casper was born in Bertie County NC in 1915 and was "born again" in a home prayer meeting in 1931 at the age of 16. He did not choose to be a minister, but was rather called of God to preach.

He received Mission Worker's License on July 27, 1935 and Local Minister's License in September 1943. George was Ordained in September 1945.

Rev. Casper pastored in the NC Conference for 36 years. During this time he served Clayton, Shiloh (Wilson) Vaughn Chapel, Ebenezer, Bethany, Rehoboth, Kenly, Windsor, Washington, Robersonville, Wades Point, Meadowbrook and Hobgood.

After his retirement Rev. Casper served as interim Pastor at Hodges Chapel, Pinetown, Hobgood, Plymouth and Wades Point.

His first wife Evelyn died in 1986.

Rev. Casper was described by his Conference Superintendent as "a gentle, kind and unpretentious man...steadfast, unmoveable and always abounding in the work of the Lord."

Rev. Casper is survived by his wife Esther and his children Mabel, George, Jr., Shirley, Ruth, Edward, Carolyn and Tony. Also by stepchildren Phyllis, Raymond and Marvin.

George Casper was one of the stars held in the Lord's right hand where he experienced the Lord's anointing for ministry and grace to cross over to the heavenly home.

REVEREND PRESTON EDGAR LANE
JULY 16, 1927 - FEBRUARY 27, 1997

Preston Lane was saved in a cottage prayer meeting in Wilson County in April 1942. Soon thereafter he was sanctified and received the Pentecostal Baptism with the Holy Spirit. He joined the Wilson First PH Church in April of 1943 and felt the call to preach upon his life. Due to service in the United States Army Preston was not able to pursue his call to ministry until he returned to civilian life when he accepted an invitation to work in local prayer meetings in his home town of Saratoga, NC. In 1950 he was ordained by the Trent River Free Will Holiness Conference and was called to pastor the Saratoga Free Will Holiness Church where he served for 5 years. He also pastored in Burgaw, NC for five years.

In 1960 employment demands necessitated a move to Roanoke Rapids, NC. While there he attended the PH Church at Weldon. He spoke in prayer meetings, conducted revivals and at the request of Superintendent Eddie Morris filled in for Rev. Lessie Polston at the Gum Chapel church during an extended period of illness.

In 1965 Rev. Lane returned to Saratoga serving an additional 14 years at his home church where he acquired property and built a new church. He also served Freedom Chapel in Wilson, Pope's Chapel in Dunn, and finally in 1983 he moved to Mount Olive where he built a new church which in 1992 was chartered as Cricket Ridge Christian Assembly where he served until retirement on June 30, 1994.

Rev. Lane transferred into the North Carolina Conference in 1994 where he filled in at several churches and was pastoring the Stantonsburg church at the time of his homegoing.

Preston Lane was a loving and caring pastor and was speaker on a radio program continuously since 1952.

He is survived by his wife Rebecca, son Phillip, daughters Debbie and Sandy and five grandchildren.

In addition to these credentialed ministers, we also honor the following who were members of the Falcon Camp Meeting Association.

William S. Wellons	Northwood Temple Pentecostal Holiness church - Fayetteville, NC
Woodrow Lucas	Culbreth Memorial Pentecostal Holiness Church - Falcon, NC

All these faithful men and women have completed the tasks the Lord assigned them for life. They enjoyed the protection and the power that accompanied the "right-fist grip" the Lord held them with. Now this same Lord has lifted this same right hand over their heads and has declared with a great voice, "Behold the tabernacle of God is with men and I will dwell with them and they shall be my people, and I myself shall be with them and be their God" and with this same right hand "God has wiped away all tears from their eyes. And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain."

God Himself has given these our companions in ministry their greatest honor, to sit with Him in His throne. Amen!

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 1997 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Fifty-third Annual Convention on Saturday, June 7, 1997, at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, NC. The convention theme was "Garments of Praise."

Registration began at 8:30 a.m. in the cafeteria with the NCWM District Directors serving as registrars. The Culbreth Memorial Women's Ministries provided coffee and donuts. Musical prelude began at 9:15 a.m. with Mrs. Phyllis Harrell as pianist and Mrs. Deane Jackson as organist.

The convention was called to order at 9:30 a.m. with greetings and invocation by North Carolina Conference Superintendent, Rev. T. E. Long. NCWM Director Linda Thomas gave the response and welcome. Opening choruses were led by the Capital Trio.

Mrs. Sue Parker, NCWM Assistant Director, began the business session by reviewing the packet distributed to those present and by discussing upcoming events and announcements.

President Linda M. Thomas gave the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries" report. She expressed appreciation to all who have ministered in the local church and supported the NCWM programs. She commended the women across the N. C. Conference for answering the call to be change agents...leading people from ashes to beauty by ministering Jesus.

President Thomas expressed her appreciation to the NCWM Board Members, Sue Parker, Patsy Deese, Phyllis Harrell and Janice Marshburn.

President Thomas expressed her appreciation to the NCWM District Directors, NCWM Historian, Dorothy Boyette, NC GEMS Board Members, Sandra McCandless, Ruth Foley, Sarah Fuquay and Elaine Stalls. MWF Director, Mrs Sylvia Long and her Board were recognized for their motivation and encouragement to our minister's wives.

Other committees which President Thomas extended her appreciation were: Happy Hearts, Couples Retreat, and the Singles Retreat Committee.

Special appreciation was expressed to North Carolina Conference Superintendent, Rev. T. E. Long, Board Members and the NC Conference RDC Personnel.

President Thomas extended a special expression of love and appreciation to her husband, Joe and her family for their continued love and support.

Feast of Ingathering Scholarships were presented by President Thomas to the following students.

Shanna Brooke Sanders
Kelly LaRue Moore
Sara Price
Andrew F. Rook
Jonathan D. Wood

NCWM Secretary/Treasurer, Patsy Deese with the assistance of President Thomas and the District Directors presented the 1996 awards earned by each local Women's Ministry group. These awards are listed in the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries" booklet.

A special presentation was made to President Thomas in appreciation of all of her hard work and dedication to the women across the North Carolina Conference.

The Memoirs Report was given by Mrs. Clara Williams.

The Capital Trio, Margaret Abbott, Beverly Ward and Cathy Ward, set the tone for the devotional part of the Convention with a special song, "Jesus I'll Praise You Forever". Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson, General WM Secretary, introduced Rev. Rene Ross, General W. M. Board Member as our guest speaker. Pastor Ross used as her opening scripture, Joshua 3:3 and Isaiah 61:3. She challenged each of us to wear our "Garments of Praise" no matter what the circumstances are around us. God is wanting our worship and our praise. He is in control. A fresh anointing of God was in our midst during this time of worship.

The Capital Trio then sang, "Stand Back and See". Mrs. Janice Marshburn, NCWM Board Member, lead the ladies in prayer and in singing the chorus, "Garment of Praise".

President Thomas gave closing remarks. Mrs. Phyllis Harrell led in the benediction.

The beautiful floral arrangement was provided by the Selma Women's Ministries in loving memory of Mrs. Hazel Evans.

Respectfully submitted,

Patsy C. Deese
NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
1996-1997 REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

"The spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourn; To appoint unto them that morn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the GARMENT OF PRAISE for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified." Isaiah 61:1-3

I believe God has called North Carolina Women's Ministries for such a time as this. This scripture from Isaiah is very descriptive of the age in which we live. So many are brokenhearted and living in the bondage of sin. We, as women of God, are called to minister the good tidings! It is both our responsibility and our privilege to proclaim the power of God to the world...to minister in such a way that mourning turns to joy. It is not within our human ability to do this; but when the spirit of the Lord is upon us, our ministry will be anointed.

During the past year I have witnessed your various ministries. I have enjoyed visits in your local churches and seeing the different focuses which you emphasize. Some of you have a heart for missions, some are diligent in the outreach to Falcon Children's Home, some have a passion for educating our young people and put much effort in Feast of Ingathering. Some show great interest in ATAM Network. All of you work toward your local church and community outreaches in addition to the other ministries.

You are certainly the picture of what ministering women is all about. You work long and hard to raise funds to provide the means for reaching souls. Yet, you do not stop there. I see many of you personally going into your communities and touching lives. Nursing homes, pregnancy counseling centers and various other areas of ministry benefit from your touches. Yet, the challenge is still before us. We are called to be change agents...to lead people from ashes to beauty. We are called to minister Jesus. That is what we are all about.

Sue, Patsy, Phyllis, Janice and I have had a busy year as your board. We have worked hard to plan and execute trainings and various other activities to better equip you and motivate you to service. Many of you have taken full advantage of each function.

	GEMS Convention

In addition to these listed activities, I have planned for and chaired all NCWM Board Meetings. I have attended district WM rallies and spoken for numerous WM Day services. I have attended several Sharing Sister meetings and regular local WM meetings. I have served in an advisory role on the NC Conference Missions Committee and have attended several missions related functions. Much time has been spent in phone conversations, in front of the computer, at the desk and on the highways as I have worked as your NC Conference Director.

NEWLY ORGANIZED WM GROUPS:

I was blessed to organize a new WM at the Global Outreach Church in the Greenville District. I also visited with New Life Church in the Greenville District for the purposes of discussing organization (formal organization is pending). Several Hispanic groups are now being oriented in Women's Ministries, and we expect to organize them in 1998.

SPECIAL PROJECT:

At the 1996 NCWM Convention you were so generous with your gifts to replenish the supplies in our NC Conference Missions Commissary. Items you furnish are given to missionaries on furlough to use and to take back to their respective fields of ministry.

APPRECIATION TO:

I could never end my report without giving special thanks to many others without whose help, support, & guidance my work would be in vain. First of all, I thank God for giving me the opportunity to serve you. My life has been so enriched to have had you touch me in so many special ways. I feel that I have made many deep and life-long friendships through our having labored together through Women's Ministries.

NCWM Board Members, SUE PARKER, PATSY DEESE, PHYLLIS HARRELL, and JANICE MARSHBURN. We have become family. God truly put us together as a team, each person with her own strengths to fulfill the job to which He called us. We have a keen sense of our responsibility to meet your needs and are committed to doing so. Much time is spent in prayer and preparation for each event, and you make our work so rewarding. Each of these ladies are anointed of God and dedicated to His service.
NCWM District Directors, JOYCE SWINSON, PATSY PAYNE, JUSTINE LEE, JANIE Howard, TERRI HODGE, CHARLENE STRONG, PHYLLIS BUCK, MESHELDER RICHARDSON, FAYE VIVERETTE, LINDA ASKEW, TERESA BRADSHAW and GAIL DAVIS. These ladies have served in their respective districts as liaisons for our board. They have made numerous contacts in our behalf in addition to holding district rallies. They are also our ever-present helps in time of need at our various conference functions. They truly deserve recognition today.
NCWM Historian, DOROTHY BOYETTE, continues to do a great job keeping the Historical account of the happenings of NCWM. The NCWM Scrapbook is evidence of her labors.
NC GEMS Board Members, SANDRA MCCANDLESS, RUTH FOLEY, SARAH FUQUAY AND ELAINE STALLS. This leadership team has done an exemplary job in promoting the GEMS program in our conference. They, along with their team of district directors, provide great training opportunities for GEMS leaders as well as a program to motivate and encourage each level of the GEMS participants.
Minister's Wives Fellowship Committee, SYLVIA LONG, REGENIA WHITFIELD AND ANN WOOLARD. A highlight of this years activities was the Stress Management Seminar which they sponsored. These ladies continue to provide motivation and encouragement to our ministers' wives.
Happy Hearts Committee, BLANCHE POLLARD, DAISY MORRIS, KATHERINE LUCAS and JEAN WILLIAMS. If you attend a Happy Hearts meeting, you'll not want to miss the next one. There is such an air of excitement as our senior ladies gather to fellowship. This special ministry group has proved to be very popular. In fact, the group has grown so much, we are looking at ways to restructure so we can accommodate all who wish to participate. They continued with their Christmas Stocking Project in 1996 and sent stockings to the Red Hook mission to be distributed to children in Brooklyn, NY.
Couples Retreat Committee, CATHY WARD, CATHY ARTHUR and KAREN BAREFOOT again did an outstanding job with the 1996 retreat at Myrtle Beach, SC. The facility and program were both excellent, and the retreat was well attended. Plans are now being made for the 1997 retreat in November at Williamsburg, VA.
Singles Retreat Committee chaired by EDNA WILLIAMS has asked to be replaced, after having done an excellent job in this role for several years. We are in search of a person who would chair this committee for 1997-1998.

Past Presidents' Club is chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT. She, along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT and MARY BELLE JOHNSON are a constant source of encouragement to me. They also presented to the NCWM Board a portrait of Mrs. Lila Berry and a recording regarding her life made by Mrs. Berry's granddaughter. This is in the Octagon Tabernacle as a part of the history of the Pentecostal Holiness Church and the birth of Women's Ministries.
NC Conference Superintendent and Board Members. Rev. T. E. LONG and the NC Conference Board are very supportive of the Women's Ministry in our conference. We appreciate the cooperation they give to our programs.
NC Conference RDC Personnel, DELORES, ROSE, LISA, WESTA, and KAY are so helpful on any occasion I call on them. Whether running labels for a mail-out or borrowing their scissors, they meet our needs in a loving manner. Also, to DWAYNE, thanks for being there to do all the last minute tasks that we always seem to need done prior to every event. You all are a joy to me.
My Husband and family, JOE, SCOTT & SHERRI, ALLEN, BRYNN AND EMMA-- I know there are many times when you really wish I could be more involved with you and not so preoccupied with WM. But, you have all been so supportive and even chipped in to help me when I occasionally called on you. Joe, thanks for riding the many miles with me to different churches around the NC Conference and for holding me up in prayer. Children, thanks for being understanding when I had to go to a WM Rally rather than to some event with you. You're all dear and precious to me, and I thank you for your support of my ministry.
Conventions Participants... thanks to each of you for helping to make this program today an enjoyable time of worship and fellowship. Your talents and ministries are what makes this a special day. AND...thanks to each of you who have chosen to attend this Convention today. Our board works hard to plan and prepare for this event, and you choose to take advantage of this opportunity of motivation and fellowship. THANK YOU FOR MAKING NCWM WHAT IT IS!!! SO...we have come to the close of another WM year. I trust that it has been as action packed for your local WM as it has been on the conference level. My prayer is that the 1997-1998 year will lead us to a higher plane of ministry...a level where we can truly lay aside anything that would hinder our outreach for Jesus... a level where we will be instruments in God's hands to help others to replace the spirit of heaviness with the GARMENTS OF PRAISE!!

Much love to each of you,

Linda Morris Thomas, Director
North Carolina Women's Ministries

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES CONVENTION
MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT
1997

Today we celebrate the homegoing of some precious saints of God. We are grateful to the Lord that these women passed our way and influenced our lives on their journey to Heaven.

SHE IS JUST AWAY

I cannot say, and will not say,
That she is dead...She is just away
With cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you, oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return.

Think of her faring on, as dear,
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of her still as the same I say,
She is not dead. She is just away
